Election/Restrictions

A telephone call was made to Mr. Patrick Yoder on 17 June 2005 to request an oral election to the restriction requirement below. Linda Howell, on behalf of Mr. Yoder, informed the Examiner that an election could not be made at this time.

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-16, 19-24, and 30-37, drawn to a system for placing a standing order that does not violate business rules, classified in class 705, subclass 26.
 - II. Claims, 17-18, 25-29, 38-40, and 47-54, drawn to a system and methods of placing and revising a standing order, classified in class 705, subclass 26.
 - III. Claims 41-46, drawn to a method of creating a standing order, classified in class 705, subclass 26.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and II are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case, invention I is used to prevent customers from ordering in violation of business rules, which is not required for invention II, which creates and revises standing orders.

Art Unit: 3625

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group 1 is not required for Group 2, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

3. Inventions I and III are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case invention I is used to prevent customers from ordering in violation of business rules, which is not required for invention III, which creates standing orders.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group 1 is not required for Group 3, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. Inventions II and III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention III has separate utility such as identifying frequency and duration of delivery, which is not required for invention II, which creates and revises standing orders. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group 2 is not required for Group 3, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Art Unit: 3625

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Species

5. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

In the event that the applicant elects Invention II above, he is further obligated to elect among the following species as follows:

Species of claims 17-18, 38-40, 25-29, and 47-50 directed to an embodiment for modifying the quantity, and product.

Species of claims 17-18, 38-40, 47-54 directed to an embodiment for reviewing the standing order and processing the revised order.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claim 17 is generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.
